The UN System-wide Knowledge Hub on Addressing Sexual Harassment is a repository of resources, best practices, and tools on the UN system’s efforts to prevent and address sexual harassment.

Developed by UN Women, the Knowledge Hub brings together UN system-wide resources and encompasses additional external resources on addressing sexual harassment to enable access to support services for victims and survivors.

The Hub is accessible to UN personnel, Member States, civil society representatives, and the general public.